Spot something missing? Hit the feedback tab and let us know!

Did you know: you can reverse look-up a bleep by tapping the telephone icon on the directory view?

Welcome to the new App. Thank you for downloading. Ward handover feature to be added soon.
Upper Gastrointestinal Bleeding

Introduction
Resuscitation and pre-endoscopy management
Management summary chart
Risk stratification
Endoscopy
Discharge and follow-up
Links

Introduction

Definitions
Acute Upper GI bleeding (AUGIB) is defined as the presence of haematemesis, melaena or occasionally haematochezia, for less than 72 hours.
- haematemesis is vomiting of bright red blood
- melaena is the passage of black tarry stools
A
- A&E Majors
- A&E Minors
- A&E Observation Ward
- A&E X-Ray
- ACE Ward
- Acute Stroke Unit
- Anaesthetic Department

B
- Blood Bank
- Bone Marrow Transplant Unit
- Breast Unit

C
- CT Department