

Supplementary file 1. Survey questions

1. What method is used to analyse the sentinel events in your hospital?

Answer:

2. Which disciplines are, and what expertise is, represented within the analysis of sentinel events?

Answer:

3. How is dealt with the recommendations made by the investigation team? Is a selection of these recommendations implemented or are all recommendations implemented?

Answer:

4. When a selection of recommendations is being implemented and they need to be prioritized, based on what are they prioritized?

Answer:

5. Who is responsible for prioritizing the recommendations? Someone from the investigation team, the head of the concerning department or someone else?

Answer:

6. How is the implementation of recommendations monitored in your hospital?

Answer:

7. How is determined whether a recommendation is suitable and useful for other parts of the hospital?

Answer:

8. How are these recommendations handled?

Answer:

9. Are sentinel events, despite the efforts being made, reoccurring? What could be the cause?

Answer:
