

Supplementary Table 3. Common pregnancy-related complications and indications for neonatal referral

Characteristic ²	Referred, n=73 ¹	Not Referred, n=767	P value ²
Most common pregnancy-related complications, %			0.96
- Any complication	28	26.6
- Prenatal hemorrhage	0	2.0
- Threatened abortion	8	2.8
- Premature rupture of membranes	0	0.2
- Hypertensive disorders of pregnancy	2	1.6
- Vaginal infection	2	4.4
- Urinary tract infection	17	15.6
Most common indications for neonatal referral, %			n/a
- Low birth weight	56	n/a
- Prematurity	4
- Respiratory distress	4
- Abdominal distention	1
- Feeding difficulties	4
- Concern for sepsis	11
- Jaundice	7
- Excessive crying	7

¹Data on patient-reported pregnancy complications available for 53 (73%) of referred and 635 (83%) of non-referred mother-child pairs. Neonatal referral indications available for all referrals. ²P values calculating using the chi-square test