

Nurse

Hepatitis A Vaccination Best Practice Advisory Survey Questions

Are you aware that a hepatitis A outbreak is currently present in southeastern Michigan?

- Yes
- No

Please respond to the questions below based on your response to the hepatitis A best practice advisory in the last 6 months.

1. How frequently are you able to complete the hepatitis A screening in the emergency department?
 - Never
 - Sometimes
 - Usually
 - Always
2. If you selected “never”, “sometimes”, “often”, or “usually” to the question above, please identify the reasons. You can select multiple responses.
 - Lack of time
 - Uncomfortable asking patients sensitive screening questions
 - Patient declines to answer the questions
 - Not aware that hepatitis A vaccinations available in the emergency department
 - The southeastern Michigan hepatitis A outbreak is currently under control
 - Patient was in unstable clinical condition
 - Other:
3. At what stage of the emergency department visit are you typically able to ask the hepatitis A screening questions?
 - when the patient is in triage
 - when I first meet the patient after he/she has been roomed
 - when I enter the room during the visit to act on orders by the physician (fluids, meds, lab draws, etc.)
 - just before the patient is discharged or admitted
4. What overall feedback and suggestions do you have to improve the use of the ED Hepatitis A best practice advisory?