

Supplemental Table 1. Questionnaire probing on current BPMH and MedRec practices of participants in the environmental scan

Category	Questions
General Questions	Is there a policy and/or procedure in place for BPMH/ medication reconciliation process in the ambulatory setting at the institutional level?
	Are you aware of any previous attempts to implement a process for medication reconciliation/ BPMH in your institution or in individual clinic in the ambulatory setting?
Process	When is the initial BPMH performed?
	When is medication reconciliation performed?
	Where is BPMH/ medication reconciliation performed?
	Who gathers data for it?
	Who are the target patients that it?
Data Sources and Documentation	How is the data gathered?
	Where is the data documented?
	Is there a standardized documentation template?
Provider Training	Is there any training provided by the institution for personnel expected to conduct Medication Reconciliation?
Process and Outcomes Measurement	Is there an individualized audit-and-feedback system for Medication Reconciliation performance?
	Are process or outcome measures evaluated?
Role of Patients	Are patients made aware of the importance of Medication Reconciliation and its process, through education by the staff/clinic?
	What kind of educational tools are available for patients to make them aware of the importance of Medication Reconciliation?
	Are patients reminded to bring in all of their current medication vials or most up-to-date medication lists to their clinic visits?
	Do patients get a paper copy of their reconciled medication list?

	Do patients get access to their reconciled medication list on an online portal?
Barriers and Facilitators to Implementation	Can you share your challenges with implementing or sustaining Medication Reconciliation in the ambulatory setting?
	Can you share any facilitators for implementing or sustaining Medication Reconciliation in the ambulatory setting?